

NOW RECRUITING: YOU!

ACCTS has opportunities for people with military experience to join us in ministering to the world's armed forces! These volunteer positions are very flexible – you don't need to relocate, raise large amounts of money, or completely change your life. You can minister part-time or full-time, raise money if needed to carry out ministry responsibilities such as international travel, and (as most of our staff do) work from your current home. If you are interested in this position listed here, please contact the ACCTS office at 1-800-487-8108 for more information.

LATIN AMERICA MINISTRY STAFF MEMBER

Duties: Encourage the spiritual growth and leadership skills of military Christian fellowship (MCF) leaders and members in Central and South America. Encourage the development of MCFs and the growth of existing MCFs. Build relationships with Latin American Christians of all denominations by traveling to the region (at minimum, once a year) and engaging in frequent contact with them via email, phone, Skype, etc. Engender cooperation among regional MCFs. Help organize, lead, and/or speak at regional events and conferences, as requested. Work closely with regional AMCF vice presidents. Coordinate ACCTS' work in the region with other military ministry organizations. Broaden ACCTS support base by making others aware of ACCTS' work. Keep executive director and Latin America ministry team leader updated on ministry, and provide reports and photos for use in ACCTS online and/or printed publications. Attend yearly ACCTS staff meeting.

Skills/Experience Needed: Previous military service and conversational Spanish language skills strongly preferred. Portuguese language skills also helpful. Basic understanding of, or willingness to learn about, cultures of each Latin American nation, including specific religious cultures (e.g., tension between Protestant and Catholic Christians). Ability to minister to Christians of varying denominations and theological persuasions.

Funding: Self-funded, or raise support. This work-from-home position requires more time than funding. You can raise money as needed for ministry expenses (e.g., travel costs, etc.) or choose to receive tax receipts for personal expenses.

Contact: Executive Director Phil Exner or Deputy Director Bernhard Kaltenbach at 800-487-8108 or send your resume to accts@accts.org.
