

Waterloo to World War II Participant Release Form (to be signed by each participant)

ACCTS (Association for Christian Conferences, Teaching, and Service) has assembled a capable and responsible team to conduct the Waterloo to World War II (W2WWII) program. Even so, there are inherent risks with your involvement in this trip. We want you to be aware of these and to participate in the risk management decisions. The basic categories of activities and threats are:

-- Transportation (flight, train, and bus)

--Pedestrian hazards in cities with narrow streets and uneven pavement/sidewalks

-- Activities to include: shopping; hiking on rough terrain; walking on safe, cleared trails, which are close to areas that have not been fully cleared of unexploded ordnance and other hazards; walking through trenches and tunnels; going through castles and buildings that do not have OSHA-approved stairs and guardrails; visiting historic sites close to cliffs, ocean surf, and other coastal hazards; climbing on rocks, bunkers, and abandoned weapons and fortifications.

-- Threats to include: terrorism; minor medical to include sunburn, dehydration, and accidents; theft; infectious diseases; lightning and flash floods.

I, _____ (print your name) understand that there are inherent risks involved in participating in W2WWII. I acknowledge that ACCTS and its agent are acting with due diligence to reduce the risks involved with this trip, and that it is my responsibility to follow the guidance of the ACCTS staff/team leading the program. I voluntarily waive, release, and discharge ACCTS and its staff/volunteers from any and all liability, claims, demands, or causes of action which are in any way, directly or indirectly, related to arise from, or are in any way connected with, my participation in any Waterloo to WWII activity.
