

INTERACTION ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH

Workshop on Military Christian Fellowships (MCFs)

Who: U.S. and international military cadets, midshipmen, officers, other leaders and spouses seeking to serve God in the military.

When: 10 – 25 June 2020

Where: Officers' Christian Fellowship Spring Canyon camp and other locations in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado

Cost: $950 plus airfare to Colorado

Contact: Call Emanuela at 800-487-8108 or webmaster@accts.org

How to Plan, Lead, & Grow a Military Christian Fellowship (MCF)

Learn how to integrate your faith into your military career and life
Understand how MCFs operate within military organizations
See how MCFs impact people, militaries, and nations worldwide
Develop a vision for your life, career, military unit, and nation
Grow in leadership and ministry skills

Topics

- Christian leadership in the military
- Life-changing spiritual development
- Inductive bible study
- Personal and group prayer
- Strategic planning/life-goal setting
- Working with chaplains
- Building strong relationships
- Your ministry as a military officer

Activities

- Classes and exercises to apply lessons
- Outdoor activities – mountain climbing, rappelling, white-water rafting, sports, etc.
- Points of interest in Colorado springs and the Rocky Mountains including hot springs, ghost town, cliff dwellings, and others
- Visit the U.S. Air Force Academy and other military bases

Association for Christian Conferences,
Teaching, and Service